HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

My background is theatre - I've grown up with performing both in amateur and professional productions. By my late teens I'd performed at the National Theatre (London) and the New Experimental Theatre (previously the Gorky Theatre, Russia). I'm currently a member of the Geoffrey Whitworth Theatre in Crayford, South-east London and perform in several productions a year. I'm also a trained dancer, have passed all amateur awards for Ballet, Tap, Stage and Modern/Jazz as well as teaching younger pupils at the dance school I attended. I'm also a regular at the gym and do a lot of yoga as well as kickboxing.
